Who are the Gullah People of Charleston, SC and the surrounding Sea Islands? Why are scholars, researchers, and tourists interested in their history and life-ways? What language do they speak? How did they live? What did they eat? Who are their descendants? Where are they now?

This exciting new Special Topics course will provide answers to these and many more questions about Gullah Geechie people and their traditions. Register NOW!!!! Limited Seating!!! Students will learn about Gullah cuisine and spiritual practices, visit Gullah communities and landmarks, meet local Gullah residents, artists, community leaders, and entrepreneurs. Students will also conduct archival research, and participate in genealogy and oral history workshops.

For course information please contact: ofunniyina@cofc.edu