ANTHROPOLOGY ALUMNI NEWSLETTER

FALL 2013

ALUMNI IN ACTION

In our inaugural newsletter last Spring, we asked for help in naming the publication. The department voted on the submissions received, and congratulations go to Pamela Corwin '06 for her winning title The Egalitarian. Read all about Corwin's work with the S.C. Department of Natural Resources and what she has been doing since graduation.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIOLOGY
AND ANTHROPOLOGY

FACULTY FOCUS

Moore Quinn will be traveling to Northern Ireland during late fall semester to continue her research with the History Links Project (HLP). This cross-cultural and cross-border initiative was designed to mitigate societal tensions in troubled areas of Ireland and Northern Ireland. Quinn has been working with HLP since its inception in 2009, with the project set to conclude this year. Read more about HLP and Quinn's involvement here.

WORLD IMPACT

Shortly after graduating, Lauren Johnson '08 traveled and worked extensively in Europe. Most of her time was spent in Rome, where she taught English and earned a Master's in International Relations from St. Johns University. Subsequently, she worked in Washington, D.C. as a Homeland Security Emergency Management Planner, and now serves as a business continuity analyst with the World Bank. Click here to read about Johnson's experiences and her perspective on the value of her anthropology major.
